Yohan's Memories

Hobart High School
Hobart, Indiana

NANCY BAUMANN, Editor-in-Chief
BETTY FLEMING, Business Manager

Here we are, the last of May, another year has passed. Just one of the many years at school that you'll always remember . . . Could you ever forget them?

Memories . . . ah, yes, the little things and the big things . . . the excitement of the first day back at school . . . seeing your friends from last year and meeting new ones . . . the rush to the cafeteria at noon . . . the pigeons cooing . . . the creaky worn-out stairs . . . Remember the days when you got whiffs of that wonderful aroma of food in the halls? . . . those home-ec girls really know how to cook. Then again did you ever smell that not-so-wonderful aroma around 208? Many times I've wondered what those mad little scientists were concocting . . . Do you recall the vacations? . . . oh, those lovely vacations! . . . the dances and parties . . . the exams . . . the annual Junior-Senior picnic . . . and what fun we had at the Junior-Senior Prom . . . Will you ever forget that? Then senior week came with all its functions . . . honor day convo . . . senior convo . . . senior breakfast . . . and sneak day. And finally the long awaited days arrived . . . baccalaureate and graduation . . . Some were smiling . . . some had tears in their eyes. Through the pages of this book you can re-live it all.

BUELL C. CRUM
Acting Superintendent of Schools

During the illness of Superintendent Garver, Buell Crum, until that time high school principal, took over the responsibilities of the superintendent.

School Concert Band

The band portable was in a turmoil that October day. Hats sailed in the air. Happy shrieks were heard. Yes, the Hobart High School Marching Band had won the sweepstakes award in the state marching band contest and its members were celebrating. This surely was a wonderful way to end an extremely successful marching season.

In a few more weeks it was back to work, so the band started to rehearse for their fall "Pop" concert in December. Another success. Between concerts the members kept busy playing for many civic events, such as the Boy Scout Jamboree, teachers' conventions, a Garden Club program, and very, very busy with just plain practicing. The band also attended the state and district solo and ensemble contests in February with the usual good results.

After the mid-winter concert in March, they set out on their tour to New Orleans with high hopes for having both successful concerts and a lot of fun. They returned with dreams come true.

The Spring concert followed and soon after came graduation. The seniors are now alumni, and those who are left behind are thinking, it is sure, that the band will never really be the same without them. But the Hobart High School Band will never actually change. It will always go on carrying the tradition of good music and bringing to our school the fame of its successes.

Hobart High School

Hilmer Jacobson, gifted with the art of music, in his first year at Hobart High School, has put forth all of his talent to build an outstanding a cappella choir for Hobart High.

This choir, the first a cappella choir Hobart has ever had, has participated in many programs this year. Members took part in the February contests in Crown Point, Parent Teachers Association meetings, Christmas Vesper services with the band, programs for the Women's Club, convocations, church services, the February 24 radio program over WWCA, and commencement and baccalaureate services.

Mr. Jacobson is to be complimented on the fine progress the choir is making. He is building an outstanding vocal department which in the near future shows promise of being one of Indiana's best.

The sophomores made a fine showing with their display which was awarded first prize of five dollars.

The freshmen display was chosen second with an award of three dollars.

One of the biggest events at the first of the year was the Homecoming. Evelyn Evans was chosen queen with Norma Dowd and Mary Stringer as her court.

Second Annual Homecoming

The junior display was judged third and received an award of two dollars.

The seniors received 98 cents for their efforts.

Marilyn Thornton, Beverly MacLean, Lorraine Rosenbaum, and Jean Hallas, the reserve cheerleaders, led the crowd in cheering our reserve team on.

It is the first Friday of the month and look at the senior boys dressed up in Hobo fashion — Joe Valovich, Bob Marconi, Nelson McIntire, Tom Zajec, Chuck Wittman, Jerry Belkow, Marshall Moreno, and Eddie Cmar.

The boys' barbershop quartet, consisting of Gene Stump, Joe Valovich, Jerry Belkow, and Casimer Koby were part of the entertainment for the senior class party.

The pep band took an active part in the election campaigns this year, besides the basketball games and other activities. Allen Larson, Ronald Kaiser, Martin Sensenbaugh, Douglas Johnston, Mac Brown, Dick Campos, Bob Moon, and Frank Epperson.

To bring out the spirit of Christmas, Don Brown, Joe Beerbower, Chuck Wittman, Marshall Moreno, Joan DeMers, and Marian Ehlen gather around the piano to sing Christmas carols.

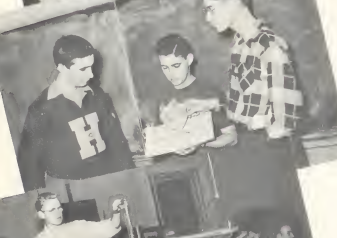

Many interesting things are found at the bottom of a test tube — this is proved by Ruth Hall, Joe Valovich, Jerry Belkow, and Doris Papke, in chemistry class.

Did you ever wonder how water is distilled? Well, that's what these 7th grade scientists are showing. Ronnie Kranz, Gladys Jackson, Bob Kruk, Fred Kyle, Billy Harding, Bill Hess, and Mr. Foxworthy.

Mac Brown proves to Douglas Johnston and Bob Moon that AE is perpendicular to line L in plane MN, using a model made by Glenn Carlson.

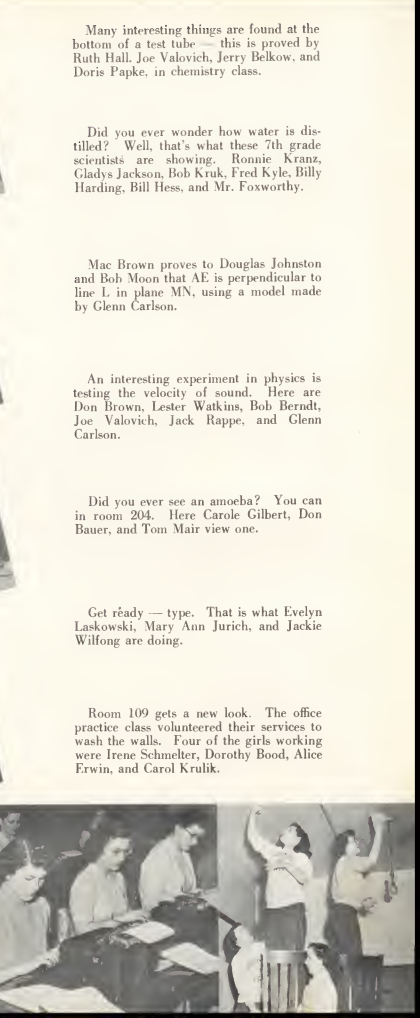

An interesting experiment in physics is testing the velocity of sound. Here are Don Brown, Lester Watkins, Bob Berndt, Joe Valovich, Jack Rappe, and Glenn Carlson.

Did you ever see an amoeba? You can in room 204. Here Carole Gilbert, Don Bauer, and Tom Mair view one.

Get ready — type. That is what Evelyn Laskowski, Mary Ann Jurich, and Jackie Wilfong are doing.

Room 109 gets a new look. The office practice class volunteered their services to wash the walls. Four of the girls working were Irene Schmelter, Dorothy Bood, Alice Erwin, and Carol Krulik.

The accuser, the accused and the jury of Mr. Osborn's sixth hour history class practice putting democracy into effect. Seated: Frank Epperson, Marjorie Smallwood, Shirley Ahlgrim and Mona Kingston. Standing: Edward Worthington, Bill Costello, Fred Schellenberg, Bill Schmidt and Marilyn Noble.

Discussing their English test are Laura Newmann, Ethan Owens, Jack Teitge and Bruce Massey. These are the four who had the highest marks on the test.

John Findling and Phil Speer are shown with Silas Marner's cabin which they made as an English project.

Peggy Murray, Betty Harders, and Marcia Peck admire one of the notebooks made by the Latin class students.

Bud Marconi shows what a convenience our library can be as he checks out a book from Evelyn Laskowski, librarian.

Pat Cates and Carl Talian give their attention to Mr. Schmidt as he explains the mechanisms of the car in drivers training class.

Miss Dean gives a few pointers on basketball to Pat Killens, Jean Largent and Carole Gilbert.

Boys in the General Shop foundry, John Allen, Gene Talmadge and Glover Lewis are in the process of ramming-up a mold.

Ronnie Albert, Floyd Mallot and Thomas Gatch cast a flask in General Shop.

Mr. Smith demonstrates a milling machine to some of the boys; Jim Nichols, Jerry Pavese, and Larry Gee.

Ray Riech finds that many beautiful wooden bases may be made for lamps on the wood lathe in General Shop.

Joanne Kurth, Doris Fowler, and Evelyn Evans display the knick-knack shelves that they made in General Shop.

Coy Auxier uses the linotype in Print Shop as Bob Brown looks on.

James Ewigleben, Jim Steen and Cecil Reese, three building trade boys, make the laboratory table for the junior high science classes.

Three more skillful workmen apply their skill to the finishing of book shelves for one of the teachers. They are: Ted Krawczyk, Walter Krawczyk, and Reinhold Hallmen.

Thomas O'Keefe and James Cooley demonstrate the process of making a blue-print.

Mr. Smetzer instructs James Cooley and Tom Cox on how to make an architectural drawing.

Four boys of the Building Trades Class make a picnic table for the city park. Those working are: Jerry Christian, John Ksenak, Tom Machin, and James Bristol.

Ronnie Stienbrenner and Janet Carlson admire the different projects made in junior high social studies class.

Ted Mioduski, Marshall Moreno and Jerry Waite look over the senior high art class projects. These were made of papier mache and covered with paint or cloth.

Mrs. Mart took time out to demonstrate to the child care class how to bathe a baby. Those observing were: Carole Gilbert, Carol Athens, Beverly Dutkovich, the Schmidt children and Marilyn Emory.

Georgia Lyman, Nancy Dault and Mary Banaski make a delicious dessert for the teachers' noon luncheon.

The junior high art classes also made papier mache projects. Those working are Mary Kurth, Ada Mae Pritchard, Beverly Mehalic, Elaine Richeson, and John Manning. In the background is Frank Broda.

Two more advanced food class students are Dorothy McCumber and Dolores Moreno who are preparing a salad for the teachers' noon luncheon.

Another domestic art is clothing. Here Janice Hahn, Kally Mougros and Darlene Kostka cut out patterns while Doris Cullum sews her project together.

Sports

Remember those thrilling moments when the whole crowd was brought to its feet during the Hobart-Merrillville game . . . One thing we'll never forget — the first time in twenty-two hard-fought years that the Brickie Cagers went three consecutive games in the sectional tourney . . . things like these will live on in the minds of Hobart students.

Fleet-footed Harriers Snatch Seventh Place in State Meet

1949 Season Results

1. Hobart (15) Valparaiso (53)
2. Hobart (18) Hammond Tech (69) Lew Wallace (84)
3. Hammond (28) Hobart (35) Gary Roosevelt (73)
4. Hobart (15) Emerson (70) Tolleston (74)
5. 9th Annual Hobart Invitational Meet (First Place)
6. Hobart (24) South Side Fort Wayne (31)
7. Calumet Conference Meet (First Place)
8. Vincennes Invitational Meet (Fourth Place)
9. Hobart IHSAA Sectional Meet (Third Place)
10. Indianapolis IHSAA State Meet (Seventh Place)

Individual Results

After a season long fight for individual honors, Bill Strehl with 41 points nosed out Don Davis's 40 points for the top scoring honors. Both runners led the Brickie pack home in four meets each while Hugh Brown captured first place honors on two occasions. Honorary captain honors for the season generally go to the boy who scores the highest total of points for the season. Because only one point separated Strehl and Davis and Don Davis's 6th place showing in the state championship meet was the best ever attained by a Hobart runner, both boys were crowned co-captains for 1949. Other varsity individual scores were as follows: Bill Matsey 31, Ed Alexander 13½, Don H. Brown 12½, Palmer Wardell 10, Robert Goodwin 9¼, Eddie Bonzcek 2¼, and Richard Bonner 1¾ points.

Hammond was the only school to win from the Brickie Harriers in regular meet competition, their first such loss in three years. After winning the sectional meet for the last two years, Hobart finally dropped to third place but still qualified for the state meet behind Hammond and East Chicago Roosevelt. The Brickies gained revenge over their sectional conquerors in the state meet by placing 7th in the field while Hammond took 9th and East Chicago Roosevelt placed 13th. Anderson Indians proved the state champs.

With Bill Strehl, Don Davis, Bill Matsey, Eddie Bonzcek, and Richard Bonner as a nucleus for next year's team, Coach Kurth believes the Brickies will continue to lead the Calumet area as they have the past three seasons in the hill and dale sport.

Sixth Best in State Cross Country Meet

Don Davis has participated in cross country for three years. He ran both of the sectional championship meets which Hobart won.

Don is now a junior and will be eligible to run on next year's cross country team. By taking part in only cross country and track, he is able to give his best to each sport. He was co-captain with Bill Strehl of the 1949 cross country team.

By placing 6th among 142 top state runners in the state meet at Indianapolis last fall, Don has made a better showing than any other Hobart boy who has ever run in a state cross country meet.

Pigskin Packing Brickies Place Second in Calumet Conference

The smallest Brickie team in years lined up in Brickie Bowl for the opening gun of the 1949 season, faced by a husky fighting eleven from Froebel which out-weighted them several pounds to the man. Although the Brickies lost this game by a score of 32 to 0, they bounced right back to start a winning streak as they met East Gary and defeated them 14 to 7. In their third game they defeated Lowell 33 to 20. With three wins and one loss to their credit they were tied by the Vikings of Valparaiso 7 to 7.

The next two games were won without the opponents scoring a point, the first, Crown Point, by a score of 19 to 0, followed by Griffith 21 to 0. The next contest was the most important of all the games in the season, a chance to win the Calumet Conference championship, but Merrillville won with a 7 to 6 victory. For the last game of the season the Brickies journeyed to Terre Haute to play Garfield High School and took a 13 to 25 defeat which ended the season, and all high school football for the seniors.
